

Smoking: harmful to you, harmful to the planet.

In addition to the health damage it causes to smokers, tobacco also harms the environment and society through deforestation, pesticide use, sickened farmers, fires, and pollution of air, streets, and water.

The Public Health System (SUS) can help you live a healthier life without tobacco.
For more information, call 136.